

Connecticut Geothermal Association
Meeting Minutes
Gallery restaurant, Glastonbury, CT

April 2, 2016 8:30 am

Saturday April 2 Workshop:

About 30 attendees including exhibitors participated in the Spring Conference.

The Exhibition Area was open from 8:30 am until 2pm.

David Ragaini of Blake Equipment demonstrated heat fusion methods.

9:15 am: Matt Davis, of Ground Energy Support gave the first presentation on monitoring and a comparison of air source to geothermal in heating mode. He showed studies made for the associations Habitat for Humanity house.

10:30 am: Hubert Nolte spoke about Stiebel Eltron Heat Pumps and Water Heaters.

Noon: Madeline Priest of the Connecticut Green Bank presented Smart-E loan updates.

IGSHPA members who requested continuing education hours were awarded 3 hours for attendance and participation.

Following lunch, President John Sima gave a talk on the history of geothermal in Connecticut and its status today.

Submitted by: Peter Tavino, Secretary